Basilashvili – Zverev 6-4, 4-6, 7-6(5)

QUESTION: Commiserations. It's never easy after such a match obviously but would you say it has been a good week for you overall?

ZVEREV: Yes, it was a nice week. Obviously, coming back home it was great and I played the semi-final. Of course, I wanted to go further, I had all the chances in my hands but this is tennis and I'll get over it.

QUESTION: You often said that your dad is your greatest coach. I was wondering what specific attributes make him the greatest coach?

ZVEREV: He's my dad. It's quite simple. He knows me the best.

QUESTION: Could you describe how was your mind during this rollercoaster match?

ZVEREV: My mind was calm pretty much obviously, I mean I came back yesterday so I knew I could do it again today, and I was close to it. I was serving for those match points but it didn't happen. I guess it was a nice atmosphere and it was good for the crowd but now he is in the final and I lost. So, it's not the nicest feeling in the world.

QUESTION: What are your next tournaments?

ZVEREV: Montreal:
